Maine Recap

28 club members and 2 friends set out on an adventure to Maine, for our second "SEATV Road Trip." Most of us stayed in 2 bedroom cabins at Cedar Ridge Outfitters while a few brought their motor homes and enjoyed staying at the Moose River Campground. A little ride on Monday of about 25 miles on existing logging roads got us ready for Tuesday where we ventured over 100 miles to the Pittston Farm with our guides Kevin and John. Wednesday we split into smaller groups to head for the Canadian border where we met up for lunch. On Thursday, after a morning rain, two groups went out for a last ride in Maine. Terry Goldhamer and his group ventured to Rockwood, Maine riding over 100 miles. Harry Edwards took a smaller group up to Fish Pond Lake for lunch and then took a scenic ride back to the cabins. All in all most of us rode between 250-350 miles. Shopping, range shooting, fishing, relaxing in the hot tubs, swimming in the heated pool, sitting around the camp fires, and moose spotting were other activities we all enjoyed. Total animal spotting was kept track of by Keith Wyant who reported approx. 23 moose, 3 deer, 1 possum, a ton of black flies, and maybe a couple of bears. Thursday we had the Big Wood Steakhouse all to ourselves for a farewell dinner.

Thank you to Mary Anne for all her work setting up the ride and to the drives Keith, Dale, and Harry. Thanks also to Billy Snyder and Susie and anyone else that helped out.
